

» ON OUR RADAR «

GOING MOBILE The Pocket mobile workstations are designed especially for health care workers. They roll quietly and easily, offer a small footprint and can accommodate a variety of work tools from laptops, tablets and monitors to pen and paper. Movable magnetic accessories allow for quick and easy configuration by the user. Nurture by Steelcase • 800-342-8562 • www.nurture.com

PRECISION COOLING The Liebert Challenger 3000 with iCOM offers complete control of temperature, humidity and air filtration. System controls enable up to 32 Challenger units to link together. Cooling efficiency up to 30 percent can be achieved.

Emerson Network Power 800-543-2378
www.liebert.com

EMERGENCY SERVICE DiHydro's emergency chlorination plan provides a customized response to actual or potential water system contamination or increased risk of Legionella due to power outages, weather-related disasters or other system problems. The service includes activating emergency standby equipment, monitoring bacteria and chlorine levels, flushing equipment and more.

DiHydro Services Inc.
586-978-0425
www.dihydro.com

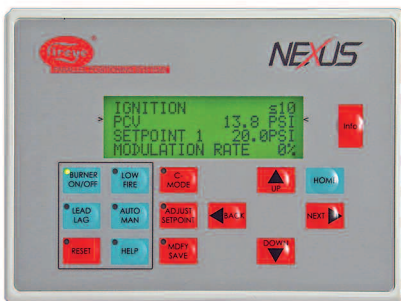

READY BACKUP The FLU-10S is a second generation to the company's FirstLine 10kVA three-phase uninterruptible power supply. The unit provides computer-grade power quality in a small footprint. It features a standard battery run time of more than 90 minutes.

Staco Energy Products Co.
866-266-1191
www.stacoenergy.com

These product descriptions have been condensed from information supplied by manufacturers, representatives and distributors. They are for informational purposes only. Product inclusion should not be construed as an endorsement by Health Facilities Management magazine, Health Forum or the American Hospital Association.

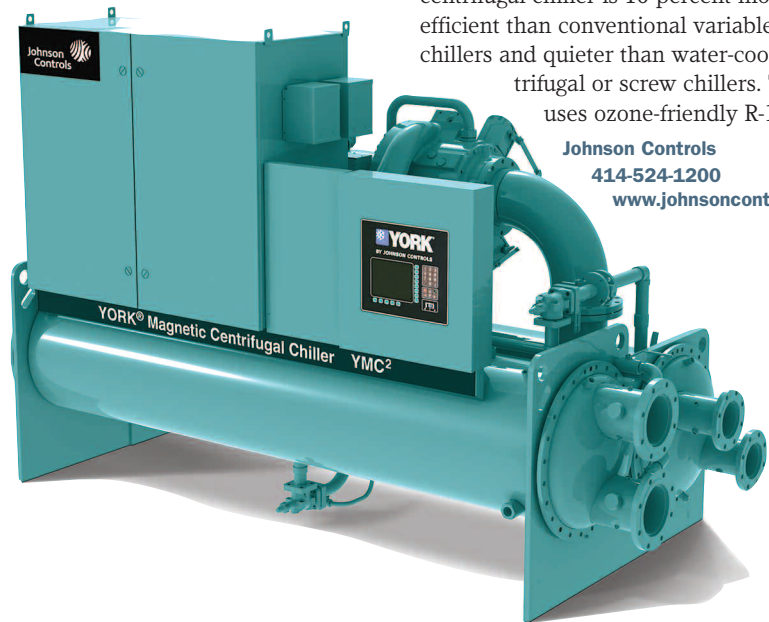

DUAL FUNCTION The DuCool air-conditioning and dehumidification system utilizes liquid desiccant technology to achieve precise humidity and temperature control. The system's intelligent controls ensure optimal utilization of solar and electrical energy from the grid as necessary. The unit is capable of achieving energy savings of more than 30 percent.

Advantix Systems
888-818-5171
www.advantixsystems.com

PRECISE CONTROL The PPC4000 combustion efficiency system is designed to save fuel and reduce emissions. Precise control of burner air/fuel ratio using independent servo motors and optional O₂ probe provides efficiency gains. Fuel savings can exceed 5 percent.

Fireye Inc.
603-432-4100
www.fireye.com

QUIET EFFICIENCY The York Magnetic centrifugal chiller is 10 percent more energy efficient than conventional variable-speed chillers and quieter than water-cooled centrifugal or screw chillers. The unit uses ozone-friendly R-134a.

Johnson Controls
414-524-1200
www.johnsoncontrols.com

COOL SOLUTION The DryCool Standard dehumidification system controls temperature and humidity independently. The unit works with an existing A/C system and treats from 1,000-cfm to 16,000-cfm makeup air.

Munters Corp.
800-843-5360
www.munters.us

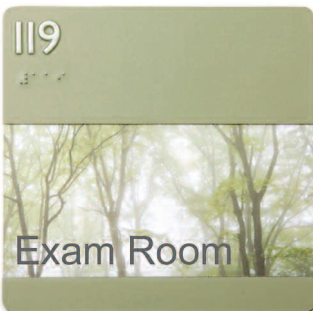

MODERN AND MODULAR The company's Elements 2 range of decorative sign materials, shapes and finishes allows a health care facility's sign system to feature a customized look. The product also offers the benefits of a fully modular and easy-to-update system that helps to enhance a hospital's image and ability to communicate to patients and visitors.

Apco Signs 877-988-2726
www.apcosigns.com

STAY INFORMED The patient communication board is designed to improve communication among patients, visitors and caregivers. The board has tempered-glass markerboards with customized text and graphics. The wood finish lends a furniture-like feel to the board.

GT Care 800-968-6035
www.gtcare.com

SAFE AND VERSATILE The FlxSign is lightweight, pliable, has no sharp edges and requires no tools for fast installation. The sign features raised tactile characters that make it Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) compliant. It has a changeable laser print image for name identification.

2/90 Sign Systems
800-777-4310
www.290signs.com

SIGN OF THE TIMES System software runs on a series of kiosks equipped with a touch screen, scanner and a printer that produces bar-coded tickets. Written directions are displayed on the screen and printed on the ticket, which can be scanned at any station in the facility. After scanning, visitors are directed to their destination or their point of entry.

ebc systems llc
302-472-1896
www.ebcwayfinding.com